

Eduardo Villa Museum

Eduardo Villa was a world famous sculptor. Visit the Eduardo Villa Museum at the University of Pretoria campus and marvel at his wonderful work. Open from 10:00-16:00 (closed Mondays) for more info: 012 420 4017

WHERE TO GO ...

Take a drive out of the city ...

WHERE TO BE ...

Go Antique hunting

Every piece of furniture tells a story and browsing and buying antiques is a fun thing to do.

For antique show fares at Melrose House call: 012 322 2805 / 322 0420

WHERE TO BE SEEN ...

Classic Frames Art Gallery

Classic Frames Art Gallery offer a large variety of original and exclusive art. It includes work from artists like Jeanne Marais and Nathan Smith, as well as Branko Dimitrov and many more.

They also do framing. Call them for obligation free advice on 012 656 9006

WHERE TO STAY ...

The Orient Boutique Hotel

Imagine stepping into a Moorish palace. It is a place where the ambiance is both cosy and inviting. The five star Orient Boutique Hotel is situated in the Francolin Conservation Area, only a few minutes drive from Pretoria, and here you will find a new appreciation for the old world, when Mughals and Maharajas ruled their empires. Owners, Mari Dartnall and Cobus du Plessis have travelled the world and collected an array of valuables that gives this fascinating Boutique Hotel its glamour. Their meticulous planning to create something so true to Moorish culture was done over many years. When it finally came together in September of this year, the result was awe-inspiring. They have the first of twelve astounding suites ready for your arrival. What makes it such a special place is the attention to detail and the collection of fine art. The Orient Boutique Hotel is an exclusive delight where you can enjoy sunsets and get in touch with yourself again. Once you have entered the gateway to splendour, it will be hard to leave.

To make a reservation call: 012 371 1190 or visit www.the-orient.net for more info.

WHERE TO EAT ...

Chantel Dartnall, the Chef and the brigade at "Restaurant Mosaic", together with Franco Mc Kellar the Maître D' will spoil the epicures and connoisseurs with their fine cuisine and carefully selected wines. Slow roasted duck leg confit on garlic pomme puree, with a sweet orange infused port wine jus and Parisian style karoo lamb loin, served with ratatouille on crispy new potato disks and a thyme infused red wine sauce, are just a few of their unique courses. Restaurant Mosaic offer a wide variety of menus and it can be customised for special occasions. A variety of intimate dining areas will be available. Options to consider would be the cosy atmosphere of the Wine Cellar or for ultimate privacy, diner à deux in the Minaret! Afterwards you can lounge in one of the many inviting lounges and feel like a true Maharaja.

For reservations call: 012 371 1190 or visit www.restaurantmosaic.com