

10 Top restaurants in SA you won't regret visiting in 2016

Liezl Grobler Food Review Blog - 19 February 2016

Mosaic at the Orient (Pretoria)

Mosaic at the Orient Boutique Hotel is where you'll find Chef Chantel Dartnall, voted SA's Chef of the Year, living out her passion for the culinary arts. Dartnall, who has been trained under the watchful eyes of world famous chefs at Michelin three-star restaurants, makes it her daily mission to ensure that diners' senses are taken on a 'sensual' experience through a combination of flavour, texture and elegance.

Image Credit: www.tripadvisor.co.za

Not only will you be treated to a feast at Mosaic, but complement your meal with some of the most noteworthy and rarest local and international wines from one of the most acclaimed wine cellars in South Africa. With its unique 'Belle Epoque' decor and service excellence, Mosaic provides an intimate ambiance and unforgettable experience.

Image Credit: Restaurant Mosaic

Unique dining experiences in world's top restaurants

AP

