

RESTAURANT MOSAIC

A love of Parisian Belle Epoque restaurants was the inspiration behind the décor of Mosaic, one of SA's finest restaurants. The ambience transports guests to a finer, gentler age when every detail of life was lived with elegance. This is the first hint that what is to come will be extraordinary.

Award-winning chef Chantel Dartnall attends to her guests with faultless poise. Her grace belies an incredible depth of knowledge and passion for her craft. A craft she executes impeccably.

A mosaic of flavours, colours, fragrances and ingredients are presented as art, on serving ware that is often crafted by artists. Chantel's vision is one of complete unity – from the acquisition of her crockery and cutlery, to the last delectably sensual morsel. It is a vision rarely encountered, even less so in South Africa. In this world of instant gratification, this chef and her restaurant stand out as a beacon of excellence.

Chantel travels incessantly to experience the finest restaurants, gain inspiration and hone her skill. She has the added advantage of a highly capable team and internationally accredited sommelier, Germain Lehodey, whose knowledge of wine is as encyclopaedic as the wine list, which encompasses two printed volumes. The cellar is arguably one of the finest on the continent. Cellar Master, Cobus Dartnall was inducted as Chevalier into the L'Ordre des Coteaux de Champagne, as one of the first members in South Africa to receive this honour in this elite Champagne ordinance that was created in the Middle Ages.

The Orient Hotel is in itself a marvel and an overnight stay is highly recommended.

Restaurant Mosaic is located in The Orient Boutique Hotel in the Francolin Conservation Area, Elandsfontein, Crocodile River Valley, Gauteng. It is a 45 minute drive from Johannesburg and 30 minutes from Pretoria.

Open Wednesday, Friday and Saturday for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Sunday breakfast and dinner. Booking is essential.

Tel: (012) 371-2902

Email: reservations@restaurantmosaic.com

www.restaurantmosaic.com

