Top 10 Restaurants in Pretoria | Fine Dining and Local Eats

Cristina Villadóniga

Pretoria is well-known for its warm hospitality, its Jacaranda trees, but less appreciated for its dining. But the city's restaurants are hidden gems waiting to be discovered. From fine dining to popular bustling eateries, Pretoria's dining presents a fusion of local South African flavors and international dishes. Here are ten of the best cultural restaurants in Pretoria, South Africa.

Restaurant Mosaic

Restaurant Mosaic is a gourmet destination for modern fine dining in South Africa. Led by award-winning chef Chantel Dartnall, who personally meets diners to explain the menu and answer questions, Mosaic is located in the spectacular Orient Hotel, hidden in the Crocodile River Valley in the lush Francolin Conservation Area. With an art nouveau style décor, Mosaic has an intimate atmosphere and an impressive wine cellar, with some of the best and most unusual wines. Its dishes are inspired by nature and European cuisine, using the best seasonal fresh produce in a la carte and degustation tasting menus with a philosophy: passion, consistency and simplicity.
