RESTAURANT MOSIAC UNVEILS NEW TABULA RASA MENU

May 08, 2017

The epitome of grandeur – Restaurant Mosaic recently unveiled its stunning Tabula Rasa winter menu, and it is just stunning Hello Joburgers.

Tabula Rasa is the name of Dartnall's autumn/winter menu for 2017 at Restaurant Mosaic at the Orient, which has been rated as one of the finest restaurants in Africa.

The menu – the Latin phrase Tabula Rasa refers to a blank slate and anything existing undisturbed in its original pure state – has a number of African inspired dishes and again features the chef's signature Botanical Cuisine, using only the best seasonal produce with Dartnall taking her cue from nature.

One such dish is African Aromas, where Dartnall focuses on authentic African tastes from her environment and which include rooihartbees and madumbi (an indigenous starchy vegetable), combined with the scent of soetdoring smoke.

Another dish – Where The River Meets The Sea – is inspired by her secret hideaway at the coast and features a composition of tilapia, a sweet freshwater fish, along with the saltwater halibut and oyster leaf.

Restaurant Mosaic's desserts are equally tantalising – choose from the SmartTease – inspired during a moment in Paris when Dartnall saw a young child drop a smartie-covered ice-cream cone on the pavement – to the autumnal First Frost, a wonderfully constructed and gorgeously moreish dish comprising pear, chocolate and tonka.

Of course Restaurant Mosaic's famous cheese trolley – including a Charles Arnaud 36- month matured French Comté – as well as their extensive bread and butter selection remains part of the Mosaic magic on the autumn menu.

There is a choice of four Tabula Rasa menus – the Grande Degustation, the Market Degustation as well as the pescatarian and vegetarian options. Diners can partake of the sommelier's wine pairing as well as a non-alcoholic pairing with drinks specially chosen to complement the meal.

The cover of the new menu depicts a painting titled Pavlovsk by Russian art nouveau artist, Alexander Golovin, expressing Dartnall's love for the art nouveau movement which is echoed in the interior of Restaurant Mosaic.
