

HER FAVOURITE SOUTH AFRICAN INGREDIENTS ARE DIVERSE AND INTERESTING: SUURVYGIES, MADUMBE AND SPEKBOOM...

to harvest and incorporate a variety of South African ingredients to include in our dishes," she explains.

• RESTAURANT MOSAIC, Francolin Ave, Elandsfontein, Pretoria.
Visit: www.restaurantmosaic.com

CHANTEL DARTNALL

Restaurant Mosaic's Chantel Dartnall is diminutive, dynamic and incredibly creative, and her admirable flair is shared by her team.

"Every Tuesday, we have our experimental cooking day, when all the staff bring their ideas for new dishes and interesting wines they've discovered, so that we can cook together, analyse and deconstruct the ideas, ingredients and wines to create new and interesting food and wine pairings," she says.

Her favourite South African ingredients are diverse and interesting: suurvygies, madumbe and spekboom, but the one ingredient she always looks forward to using during winter is venison.

"My botanical style of cooking is inspired by nature and we are located in the midst of the beautiful Francolin Conservancy from where we are able

