

Chantel, world's best female chef

Chantel Dartnell

Chantel Dartnell, owner and head chef at the Restaurant Mosaic at The Orient, was recently named the world's Best Female Chef 2017. The awards ceremony takes place annually and is presented by TBC mediacorp to recognise the most gifted and dedicated culinary chefs.

Chantel was also ranked number 32 in the Best Chef Awards Top 100 list for 2017, the highest positioned woman and one of only three to make the top 50. It has been a very good year for Chantel and the Restaurant Mosaic at The Orient. At the 2017 Eat Out Mercedes-Benz Restaurant Awards, Restaurant Mosaic received second place in the Eat Out Restaurant of the Year award and the Eat Out Service Excellence award. Moses Magwaza, sommelier at Restaurant Mosaic, was named the Eat Out Wine Service Award winner.

Moses Magwaza, sommelier at Restaurant Mosaic, was named the Eat Out Wine Service Award winner.