

MOSAIC AT THE ORIENT, TSHWANE

Chantel Dartnall is the attention-rousing chef at this sultry, belle époque-themed restaurant which is attached to The Orient boutique hotel in a Crocodile River Valley conservation area. Last year, she landed an accolade as the best female chef in the world. With evocative names like 'Sea Mist' and 'Tidal Pool', each dish is a work of art, with plenty of foams and mists and visual play – but with flavour combinations that are totally unforgettable. Even the drinks pairing possibilities (which include an alcohol-free menu) and bread trolley are beyond exceptional. restaurantmosaic.com

Each dish is a work of art, with plenty of foams and mists and visual play

