More top gongs for fine local eatery

SHE'S done it again – acclaimed chef Chantel Dartnall and her team at Restaurant Mosaic have topped a successful year with the title of Best Chef and Best Restaurant for 2018.

Mosaic was also named Best Fine Dining Restaurant in the country at the annual Restaurant Association of South Africa (RASA) Rosetta Awards, which also gave Mosaic a gong for innovation, elegance and style of international prestige.

The other local accolades come courtesy of the Tourism and Hospitality Counsel of South Africa while Dartnell was in Paris this week to receive the La Liste Award for the Best Wine List in the world on behalf of her restaurant which is situated in the Orient Private Boutique Hotel in the Francolin Conservancy, Elandsfontein, west of Pretoria. | Staff Reporter
